DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-22, drawn to a data acquisition system and display, classified in class 235, subclass 380.
- II. Claims 23-33, 34-63, 69-83 drawn to a tracking system, classified in class 235, subclass 382.
- III. Claim 51-55, drawn to method of displaying information, classified in class 235, subclass 375.
- IV. Claims 64-65, drawn to method of computing, classified in class 235, subclass 435.
- V. Claim 66-67, drawn to a method of calibrating a camera, classified in class 348, subclass 175.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I, II and II and are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the acquisition system and display as recited in Group II does not require all specifics of the tracking system of Group II, and the method of displaying as recited in Group III. The subcombination has separate utility such as they can be used in other tracking systems or other system which quires a mean/method of displaying information.

Inventions Groups I-III, Group IV and Group V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Groups I or II or III is not required for Groups IV and V, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Conclusion

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
